CONSENT FORM (UNDER THE GDPR)

You have been referred to me so I may prepare a medical report for the Court.

It is my responsibility to point out to you that when I take your details, these will be stored on a computer. I will store the notes of our consultation, any questionnaires that you may fill out, details of the examination and details of the report that I have dictated. If you wish to re-read this statement later, it is available on my website: <http://www.oatsltd.com/privacy-statement/>.

You may be reassured that your records are kept on a professionally run, secure server, which requires separate password-protected steps to access the information. Of course, you are free to withdraw consent at any time by contacting my office on 0161 445 9885

If you agree to this, will you please sign below to indicate your consent.

Professor Sanjiv Jari
